SOCIAL SESSION OF COUNTY CLERGYMEN

Congregational and Episcopal Dine at Wauregan House and Have Meeting at Broadway Church.

Monday marked the first joint meeting of the New London County Congregational Ministers' association and the clericus of the New London archdeaconry. There were 26 members of both bodies in attendance. They had dinner at the Wauregan house and at 2 o'clock the meeting was held in the Broadway church vestry. Dr. Lewellyn Pratt called the gathering to order and upon his motion Archdeaorder and upon his motion Archdea-con J. Eldred Brown was chosen as chairman and he made some introductory remarks. Chaplain Walter Marvine of Fort Trumbull was the chief speaker of the afternoon and he spoke for about an hour upon The Seige of Pekin. He was thoroughly at home with the subject, as he was there at the time, and his account was decidedly interesting. He demonstrated it upon the blackboard and reviewed it in every detail most exhaustively.

Miss Marion E. Stark of Lyme, through her next friend, her father, J. Warren Stark, has brought suit against the town of Lyme to recover $100 damages for services rendered the town in the capacity of teacher in the public school. The suit is returnable before Justice of the Peace J. Ely Beebe of Lyme, Friday morning, February 5, at 11 o'clock. The papers were served by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs last Saturday.

The plaintiff alleges that the town of Lyme through the school committee engaged her services as teacher for the public school of Lyme for the school year of 1908-1910. She taught the Walnut Hill school during the month of September and the first week in October when she was removed as

There was an attendance of about thirty at the special town meeting held on Monday evening in town hall, it being called to order by First Selectman Lillibridge at eight o'clock. As moderator, John J. Corkery was chosen, and Town Clerk Holbrook read the warning as follows:

The legal voters in town meeting in the town of Norwich are hereby warned to meet at the town hall in said town on Monday, January 31, 1910, at 8 o'clock in the evening, to determine whether the town will authorize the selectmen to borrow not to exceed $20,00 in such sums and at such times as may be necessary to meet the obligations of the town maturing and arising before the payment of town taxes in April, 1910, and to execute and deliver the notes or other proper obligations of the town therefor.

The following resolution regarding the matter was presented by Town Counsel J. T. Fanning and unanimously passed as follows:

Resolved. That the selectmen be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, for and on behalf of the town of Norwich, to borrow not to exceed $20,000, in such sums and at such times as may be necessary to meet the law-

KENNEDY'S CLASS GIVES RECEPTION

Solo Numbers Finely Carried Out-Those in Charge.

Reception night for Prof. J. J. Kennedy's class, at which he was assisted by Prof. Thomas Maher, brought out a large and interested crowd to the Broadway dancing academy Monday evening. The well arranged programme and the skill and grace of the little people who contributed the solo humbers made the hours enjoyable for all attending.

The grand march, prettily led by two cute little tots, Master William Looney and Marguerite Connell, was the opening number that showed the careful instructions the class had received opening number that showed the careful instructions the class had received from the professor. The class programme in which friends also joined, included waitz, Dorothea, La Senorita, barn dance, Highland schottische, Colonial, waitz, five step and class lanchers.

Interspersed with these were the solo numbers. Of these two special hits were little Billy Bedard in his buck dance and little Marguerite Genevieve Connell in the baby dance. The Highland fling was done with grace and spirit by Miss Irene Everett. The Melinda by Miss Madeline Casey was an especially pretty number, as was also La Jacinta, danced by Miss Annie O'Neill. In the skipping rope dance Viola Renner made a pretty number, and the hornpipe by Raymond Harris and little Viola Carey was done in regulation seaman's style. Leslie Manchester and Harold Linberg furnished a clog that was capitally executed. Interspersed with these were the soclog that was capitally executed.

Bouquets were presented the little performers by Henry P. Beausoleil, the master of ceremonies. In the second half of the evening, there was a programme of nine numbers for the class and friends, which closed the reception when the industry is was by

TAFTVILLE low Water Main Will Be Finished This Week - Blais-Saurette Wedding -Old Residents Move to Willimantic-

With only about 600 feet of pipe remaining to be faid, the new watermain between the Ponemah company's new reservoir and the present Merchants avenue main will be completed this week, it is expected by Foreman Edward J. Sullivan, who is in charge of the work. Fourteen hundred feet of the 12-inch pipe has been laid, and the worst of the work is over. There is much water in the trench, however, but by holding back most of the water by dams and pumping out the rest, Foreman Sullivan is proceeding at the rate of 150 feet of pipe a day. There is only a small amount of blasting remaining to be done. At the reservoir proper there is little work going on.
